

Dr Jane Obasi, MRCGP (U.K.)

Dr. Jane Obasi, M.B., B.ch., B.A.O . L.R.C.P. & S.Irel. MRCGP (U.K) DPD, DCH. General Practitioner, with interest in Dermatology.

Dr Jane Obasi graduated from The Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland with a degree in medicine in 1996. After graduation Dr. Obasi worked in major hospitals in Ireland acquiring extensive experience in various specialities such as General Medicine, Surgery, Accidents and Emergencies, Care of the elderly and Paediatrics. In 1999 she acquired a Diploma in Child Health.

Dr Obasi currently works as a General Practitioner in East London. In 2002 she completed her training in General Practice and was awarded the Membership Certificate of Equivalent experience in the U.K. Since completing her training she has worked in various practices in England dealing with complex medical, surgical and psychological illnesses in the community. She also has experience working with patients from diverse ethnic and cultural backgrounds.

Dr Obasi has a keen interest in dermatology and, in 2006, completed her Diploma in dermatology (University of Cardiff). She has been a member of The Dermatology Continuing Professional Development Society since 2006 and is also a member of the Primary Care Dermatology Society. In 2009 Dr Obasi took up a 1 year clinical attachment position at a hospital in East London acquiring extensive experience in dermatology. She completed an advanced dermoscopy certificate course at the Royal College of Physicians, London in 2009.

She also gained Membership in General Practice (MRCGP) in 2008 and is a member of the Royal College of General Practitioners (U.K).

Currently attached to a district hospital in Essex, Dr Obasi works with the dermatology team, assisting with the care of patients with a variety of complex dermatological skin diseases performing cryotherapy, biopsy and minor surgery.

Dr Obasi is a fully registered doctor with the General Medical Council and also a member of the British Medical Association.